OBITUARY

Jethro Mill

Jethro Mill, for many years one of Mt. Vernon's leading blacksmiths and well known citizens, died at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home, 203 North Division street after an illness of four years due to tuberculosis and heart affection. The deceased at the time of his death was assessor of personal property in the Third ward and performed the duties of his office until a week ago when he was compelled to give up work and since that time was confined to his bed.

Jethro Mill was born in Appledore, England, August 7, 1864, and was united in marriage in Mt. Vernon May 24, 1893, to Miss Mary Burchell. To this union two children were born, Edgar, aged 8 years and Ralph, aged 5 years, both living. In addition the deceased is survived by his father, Jonathan Mill of Seattle, Wash., who was at the bedside of his son when death came. In addition he is survived by three brothers. Arthur of Zanesville, Alfred and Fred of Mt. Vernon and Mrs. P. J. Warman also of this city.

For many years Mr. Mill engaged in the blacksmith business on Coshoccon avenue. In politics he was a Republican and served in the city council from the Third ward during the years 1902, 1903 and 1904. Last November he was elected assessor of personal property in the Third ward and held that position at the time of his death.

The deceased was a member of Mt. Zion lodge No. 9, F. & A. M., Timon lodge K. of P., and Quindaro lodge No. 316, I. O. O. F.

The funeral Thursday afternoon from St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. William E. Hull officiating. Interment in Mound View cemetery.

H. S. Stoddard

H. S. Stoddard, late of Chicago, former clerk of the U. S. circuit court died at the home of Dr. Lewis in Utica about three-thirty o'clock Tuesday morning after a short illness. The remains were brought to Mt. Vernon Tuesday afternoon and taken to Mound View cemetery where the funeral was held by the members of Joe Hooker Post, G. A. R. at three-thirty o'clock. Interment in Mound View cemetery.

Mrs. William Darling

Mrs. Matthew Welch of Howard, Ohio, received a telegram on Tuesday afternoon announcing the death of her cousin, Mrs. William Darling of Oberlin, Ohio, who has been ill for several days. She was thirty years of age at the time of her death and is survived by her husband and one son. Mrs. Welch left Wednesday morning for Oberlin where she will attend the funeral which will be held at the home.

NARROW

Escape Of People And Vehicles From Runaway Team

Considerable excitement was stirred up on South Main street, at the corner of Gambler street, Wednesday morning at about nine-thirty o'clock when a team of horses hitched to a heavy log wagon ran away. The horses started just east of Main on Gambler and ran west, narrowly missing a number of vehicles and pedestrians. The animals became frightened at some object at the side of the street and as there was no one in the wagon at the time, they began to run. After reaching Harrison street, they turned north and were captured by spectators. No damage was done either to the horses or the wagon.

Lion Fondles a Child

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through colds, croup, and whooping cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of croup," writes Mrs. Geo. B. Davis, of Flint Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It's a wonderful medicine for the babies." Best for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, hemorrhages, weak lungs, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed. G. R. Baker & Son, F. Fink of Fredericktown.

BIRTHS

A son was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allen of North Sandusky street.

EVERYBODY

Eligible To Attend The Bible Institute

There still seems to be some confusion as to those eligible to attend the coming Bible institute to be held beginning next Monday. The answer is "Everybody."

In the afternoon after school there will be a study for children. There will also be a meeting for adults in the afternoon and the regular evening service or study for adults. Every one in the city will find these lessons of great value, whether they are Sunday school workers or not. Special effort is being put forth for the first meetings, i. e., Monday afternoon at 3:45, all children under 15 years of age; Monday evening every man and woman over 15, in the community is urgently requested to be on hand. The following meetings and programs will be announced at this first meeting. Here is a splendid opportunity for training for Christian service of a vital nature.

Hard Luck, Des.

Mr. Des Kirk, the efficient sporting editor of the Advocate, is suffering from a severe cold. Mr. Kirk was called to Mt. Vernon Monday on very important business, and on the way home on the B. & O., a couple of Dutch women had the window up, and as he is polished and polite gentleman, Mr. Kirk said never a word, but let the winds play havoc with him, with the result that when Newark was reached he had a nicely developed cold, and the worst of the story is he had to miss the boxing contest and go right to bed with his head tied up. Such is life in a large city.—Newark American Tribune.
